

PROFESSIONAL'S COMMENTS
ON WORKSHOP EVALUATIONS
(as written)

How would you describe this workshop to others?

"The workshop is clear and concise, and provides you with new skills and ideas to use within your practice."

*Muckleshoot Behavioral Health
5/28/09*

"Very insightful, necessary for anyone dealing with children. Full of powerful tools for successful healing."

*Muckleshoot Behavioral Health
5/28/09*

"Terrific, well worth attending. Should be mandatory for school personnel and others who work in helping professions."

*Muckleshoot Behavioral Health
5/28/09*

"Incredible information on the grief process with resource ideas galore."

*Counselor, Kent School District
1/30/09*

"It was a wonderful experience where you can gain important tools and strategies for working with children of all ages."

*Counselor, Kent School District
1/30/09*

"An outstanding presentation on grief and loss. You will receive knowledge and practical information that you can use immediately."

*Counselor, Kent School District
1/30/09*

"It was amazing, very informative, gave many tools for grief support and coping mechanisms."

*Chief Leschi Elementary School
10/3/08*

"As a complete, clear explanation of grief & loss and how to help adults & kids with it."

*Chief Leschi Elementary School
10/3/08*

"Great overview of the "grief" process and strategies to support children and families."

*Lake Washington School District
5/21/08*

"A must do for counselors. We are seeing so many more incredibly sad situations in our school settings. This information is invaluable!!"

*Counselor, Federal Way School District
2/9/08*

"Great resource! Lots of info and ideas, very organized & good handouts & visual PowerPoint."

*Counselor, Federal Way School District
2/9/08*

"Fun, interactive, lots of things to take back."

*Counselor, Washington School Counselors Association
3/17/06*

"Informative, helpful, hands on. Very insightful & effective."

*Counselor, Washington School Counselors Association
3/17/08*

"Informative, helpful, innovative. Overall – very worthwhile for anyone who has grieved or is helping those in grief. Methods/practice of bereavement support."

*Staff, Teen Link
7/23/07*

"A wonderful, professional and practical workshop on processing grief and helping others who are grieving or bereaved."

*Staff, Teen Link
7/23/07*

"Necessary for professionals."

*Counselor, Auburn School District
8/28/07*

"Sound theory with practical ideas."

*Counselor, Auburn School District
8/28/07*

"Excellent & informative.....very useful stuff."

*Counselor, Auburn School District
8/28/07*

The best features of this workshop were:

“The fast pace & activities I can use with my students.” Counselor, Lake Washington School District
5/21/08

“The experiential activities & the resources that I can take back to the office.”
Counselor, Lake Washington School District
5/21/08

“Articulate, well-organized presenter – moved at a good pace – made information understandable and useful without being overwhelming.”
Counselor, Federal Way School District
2/9/08

“Handouts with notes & Power Point slides, invaluable resources for purchase, activity ideas for groups, copies of handouts, “Response Factors” for grief, ways educators can support students.”
Counselor, Federal Way School District
2/9/08

“Great activities & ideas for group work.”
Counselor, Washington School Counselors Association
3/17/06

“The props, visual aids, and activities. You did a great job of engaging us. Very interesting quotes, stories & examples were shared.”
Staff, Teen Link
7/23/07

“The tools for my tool kit for working with grieving kids are invaluable!”
Counselor, Auburn School District
8/28/07

Suggestions for Improvement:

“Absolutely none! This is one of the best trainings I’ve been to. It helped me both professionally and personally.”
Counselor, Federal Way School District
2/9/08